To better know the Journal, please visit <https://periodicoscientificos.ufmt.br/ojs/index.php/corpoconsciencia>

¹ NOTE 1: The new line of research in Sport, Human Development, and Plurality contemplates studies that aimed to identify actions that promote greater access, participation, development, and equity of gender, color, social class, and sexual orientation, among others, in sport.

- The conference will be face-to-face and the papers will be presented in person. There will be no recorded or remote alternatives. The absence of the presenting author will imply in the non-publication of the abstract in the event's proceedings.

- The text of the papers must be in ABSTRACT format. The rules for publication are described below and must be strictly followed. Abstracts that do not follow the rules of the Congress will not be evaluated and will be automatically rejected.
- Papers without the link to the authors' orcid² will not be published in the Corpoconsciência Journal proceedings.
- Research or intervention projects will not be accepted. Both academic papers and experience reports must have been implemented.
- The abstract must be written in one of the following languages: Portuguese or English or Spanish.
- Accepted papers will be presented as digital posters. Some papers may be invited for oral presentation, by decision of the Scientific Committee.
- Each paper may have a maximum of 5 (five) authors. At the registration of the abstract, the author who will present the work must be indicated. The presenting author must be registered in the congress. Otherwise, the presentation will not be allowed, the certificate will not be issued and the study will not be published in the proceedings of the event.
- Up to 2 (two) papers will be accepted per presenting author, with no limitations for co-authorship outside this role.
- The abstracts will be evaluated in a double-blind process by, at least, 2 (two) members of the Scientific Committee of the event, whose final opinions will not be sent to the authors. In case of disagreement, a third evaluator will be consulted.
- The abstracts will be the sole responsibility of the authors and all rights, including translation rights, are reserved.
- The approved papers will be published in the digital Proceedings of the event, and the copyrights will be transferred to the organization of the event.
- The submitted abstracts must take into consideration the ethical aspects related to scientific research with human beings or animals. Consent of the subjects studied (sample/participants) must be obtained and ethical procedures (human and animal) must be respected and be in accordance with current legislation.

² ORCID registration can be done for free at <https://orcid.org/register>.

- The abstract must be submitted exclusively through the links below, in Word for Windows version 6.0 or higher.
 - The submission of scientific papers or experience reports will be by email : conipe2022.trabalho.piracicaba@sescsp.org.br
 - Questions or other information about paper submission: conipe2022.trabalho.piracicaba@sescsp.org.br
- Last date for submission: JUNE 27, 2022, 11:59 pm, Brasilia time. Acceptance of the paper will be announced in the event's web page until SEPTEMBER 05, 2022.
- The abstracts will be presented in e-poster format (poster in digital format), each author having 4 minutes of presentation and another 4 minutes for questions and answers.
- In case of oral presentation: invited authors will be organized in rooms with 4 or 5 participants. Each participant will have 5 minutes to present his/her digital poster, followed by 30 minutes of debate at the end of all presentations.
- If the abstract is accepted, the e-poster must be sent to the organization of the event until OCTOBER 01, 2022, 23:59, Brasilia time. It is the author's responsibility to follow the web page of the event, where the rules for the e-poster will be published: <http://www.sescsp.org.br/conipe2022>
- The author/s should appear 20 minutes before his/her session at the place where the papers will be presented, for recommendations on the procedure of the presentations.
- The date, time, location and order of presentation will be posted on the event website.
